Performance on : 25/09/2018

This year we successfully participated in Dajikaka Gadgil Karandak 2018 where we performed the play "Section 146". This is an inter-college competition where colleges from all over Maharashtra participate in it. For the last 3 years our college has participated in this competition and performed plays which were appreciated by the audience. This year also we participated in the competition and acted the drama named 'SECTION 146'.

The team performed a mob play named "SECTION 146" which was based on what should be the original logic behind cast system that it would be best for our nation and society . The story was written by the member of our team, Tanay Sapre and directed by Samir Kapure. The performance was thoroughly applauded by the audience and judges.

Prof. Vaishali Patil, Coordinator Intercollegiate Cultural Activities encouraged & motivated the participants. Principal S.M Deshpande Sir supported the team.
